DELAYED REGISTRATION LAW

(1937 Session Laws, Chapter 139, Section 4)

Where the birth of a child born prior to the effective date of Chapter 191, 1911 Session Laws, has not been recorded, or in case of failure to report any birth which has occurred subsequent to such date, such report may be received and filed by the local registrar for record in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purposes and uses prescribed in Chapter 2, Title 38, Idaho Code Annotated, when such report is accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician or midwife, or by Affidavits of the father or mother of the child, or if neither father or mother of the child is living or accessible, of the nearest of kin or guardian, or some person having direct knowledge in the premises.

This certificate was changed in red pencil from Keith Crandall Mendenhall to Keith Seymour Mendenhall. The red pencil would not show up on the film. Therefore FC said to make it readable. The party had received a typed copy of the certificate from this office on June 5, 1941 that gave the name as Keith Seymour Mendenhall.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed you will find the birth certificate for Rachel Darlene Baker, which you reqpested. The birth certificate for Simon Lind has already been sent.

We have searched our files and failed to find the birth certificate for Emma Josephine, and would suggest that you get in touch with the attending physician and have him send us this record so that we may place it on file.

It is not necessary to have a certificate for a child who has died in infancy, but at any time that you should want one, it will be sent you upon request.

Very truly yours,

Dear Doctor:

Will you kindly advise us on the bottom of this letter the correct birth date of Simon Lind Baker. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon M. Baker of Heyburn. The birth certificate sent to this office for registration gives the birth date as Jan. 4, 1921 and the mother says it should be Dec. 13, 1920. We are unable to make this change without a written statement from the attending physician. Enclosed please find a stamped envelope and we will appreciate a reply by return mail.

Thanking you in advance for your kind attention to this [redacted].

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Two different affiants must execute these affidavits. The person signing the principal affidavit in the upper part of the blank can not also sign the supporting affidavit below. Both signatures must be acknowledged before a Notary Public or other person authorized to administer oaths.

2. After a certificate of birth, death or marriage has been accepted for registration, necessary corrections may be made only by executing and filing these affidavits. This form, issued by the California Department of Public Health, Vital Statistics, is prescribed by law and is the only form acceptable.

3. Read the printed matter carefully. Fill out the blank (except signatures) with typewriter if possible. Otherwise write plainly with black ink.

4. No change can be made in a certificate unless it is clearly stated in the affidavit. Be careful to state all changes desired. For example, if on a death certificate the age is changed, the date of birth must also be changed to agree. Do not make changes that will leave inconsistencies in the certificate.

5. If the original certificate to be corrected is in the hands of the Local Registrar, these affidavits should be filed with him. If the original certificate has been forwarded to the California Department of Public Health, these affidavits should be mailed to the California Department of Public Health, Sacramento. Original certificates are forwarded to the state office by Local Registrars on the fifth of each month.

SEVERAL REASONS WHY A CERTIFICATE OF BIRTH SHOULD BE FILED FOR EACH CHILD AND THE SAME COMPLETED WITH THE NAME OF CHILD.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Birth registration is part of every child's birthright.

It establishes legally the date of the child's birth, parentage and legitimacy.

It enables the Public Health Nurse to make sure the child has been protected from danger of blindness and other infections at birth.

- - - - IT SHOWS AT LATER PERIODS OF LIFE: - - - -

1. The correct age for purposes of school attendance.
2. Employment.
3. Protection under the law.
4. Military and jury duty.
5. Right to travel unmolested in foreign lands.
6. Right to vote.
7. Right to receive pensions and inherit property.
8. Furnishes acceptable evidence of genealogy.
9. Right to get married.
10. Just at this time while many of the Ex-Service men are compelled to furnish certified copies of certificates of birth, it is im-

SEVERAL REASONS WHY A CERTIFICATE OF BIRTH SHOULD BE FILED FOR EACH CHILD AND THE SAME COMPLETED WITH THE NAME OF CHILD.

- - - - - - - - - - -

Birth registration is part of every child's birthright.

It establishes legally the date of the child's birth, parentage and legitimacy.

It enables the Public Health Nurse to make sure the child has been protected from danger of blindness and other infections at birth.

- - - - IT SHOWS AT LATER PERIODS OF LIFE: - - - -

1. The correct age for purposes of school attendance.
2. Employment.
3. Protection under the law.
4. Military and jury duty.
5. Right to travel unmolested in foreign lands.
6. Right to vote.
7. Right to receive pensions and inherit property.
8. Furnishes acceptable evidence of genealogy.
9. Right to get married.
10. Just at this time while many of the Ex-Service men are compelled to furnish certified copies of certificates of birth, it is important that the certificates be filed with the BUREAU OF VITAL STATISTICS and the same completed by furnishing the name of the child.

PLEASE ASSIST BY FURNISHING THE NAME OF YOUR CHILD.

DECEASED

July 11, 1922

Mrs. Martha Bonner,
Welppe, Idaho.

Dear Madam:

We are in receipt of the certificate of birth of Edna Jane White, which is signed by you. The certificate is incomplete, inasmuch as the date of the birth is not given.

Please give us the correct date of birth. The child seems to have the same name as the father, but the certificate states that it is illigitimate. Any information you may be able to give will be appreciated. We do not know how to file the certificate as one name is White and the other is Snyder.

Very respectfully,

F.W. Almond, M.D.

Dear Madam:

We are in receipt of the certificate of birth of Edna Jane White, which is signed by you. The certificate is incomplete, inasmuch as the date of the birth is not given.

Please give us the correct date of birth. The child seems to have the same name as the father, but the certificate states that it is illigitimate. Any information you may be able to give will be appreciated. We do not know how to file the certificate as one name is White and the other is Snyder.

Very respectfully,

F.W. Almond

Dear Sir

Mrs Martha Bonner gave me your letter to answer as I make out all of the certifiates. This child was born about eight months before its parents were married but there is no doubt of the fathers name and the mother is willing to go before a Justice of the peace and swear to the father with

Herbert Wahl in order to have the child bear the name of its father. The child was born Sept 28th 1920 hoping this will make thing clear to you

Yours Truly
